It should be understood that team monthly fees are based on the yearly cost of training, not an hourly or per class fee. There will be scheduled days off due to holidays, special events or a break for the gymnast. These are all incorporated into the total yearly fee. We do not schedule "make-ups" for these days off. It is also expected that gymnasts will have to miss an occasional practice due to illness, school commitments church functions or family vacations. We do not pro-rate fees for these reasons. Special circumstances need to be discussed on an individual basis
